

The End of the Line Film Screening – Adelaide

THE END OF THE LINE -
Described as the 'Inconvenient Truth' of our oceans, this internationally acclaimed film has been screened to packed audiences across Australia.

My home

Our Southwest
Less than 1% protected!

Highly protected
marine sanctuaries

saveourmarinelife.org.au

Where: Semaphore Odeon Star Cinemas,
65 Semaphore Rd, Semaphore SA.

When: Wednesday 17th March,
Starts at 6.30pm, for a 7pm screening

Cost: $12 adults, $8 children

Bookings: For further information and tickets contact Jo-Anne Seater, mark_jo@picknowl.com.au or 0403 939 390

Guest speakers include Ron Taylor, coastal botanist and co-writer of the Fleurieu Coastal Action Plan and Conservation Study and Shen Dycer, Marine Campaigner, The Wilderness Society (SA) Inc

Want to find out more about the film
<http://endoftheline.com/film/>

SAVE OUR MARINE LIFE
saveourmarinelife.org.au

Each attendee will receive an AMCS Sustainable Seafood 3-step Pocket Guide
Proceeds to go to the Wilderness Society

Save Our Marine Life is

Main Image: Fur seal Pup Copyright: © Gary Bell Small Inset: Enjoying WA's sunset: David Hannan