

Forever Wild

Australia's wilderness and wildlife thank you for considering leaving a gift in your Will towards the long term protection of Australia's WildCountry!

Below is the suggested wording for you to take to your solicitor when writing your Will, simply fill in the appropriate details:

"I bequeath to The Wilderness Society Inc for the purpose of fostering and restoring wilderness in Australia (a specified sum), or (specified items), or (the residue of my estate) free of all duties, and the receipt of the Secretary or other authorised officer for the time being shall be a complete and sufficient discharge for the executor(s)."

If you require further information on possible types of bequests, or how your bequest will help protect Australia's wilderness before visiting your solicitor, please request an information booklet on this website or contact Gaye French on the details below.

Once you have written your will and decided to include The Wilderness Society as a beneficiary, please let us know so that we can thank you personally for your commitment, and invite you to join our next honour roll.

For any queries on how to leave a bequest please contact Gaye French on 1800 030 641 or email: bequests@wilderness.org.au
