

BE PART OF THE 350 PICTURE!

In the lead-up to 350.org's International Day of Action (Oct 24th), The Wilderness Society invites you to join us in the Central Highlands of Victoria, home to the most carbon dense forests on the planet. On October 18th come and be part of a giant in a logged forest to show the world that protecting our native forests is crucial to reducing carbon in the atmosphere to well below 350ppm.

Aerial photographs will be taken on the day to capture our message and will be passed on via www.350.org

DATE, TIME: 10am Sunday Oct 18th

WHERE: Meet @ Wild Thyme Café, Warburton, then drive to local logged forest

WEAR: Red clothing

WHAT TO BRING: Lunch, sunshine
